Historical Trauma:
"Conquest, Genocide and John Wayne and WE are still here"

How to deal with our 21st Century existence.

Presented by: Carolyn Fiscus

Who should attend:
Any individuals who serve the Native American population such as: judges, child advocates, domestic violence advocates, case managers, foster parents, police officers, lawyers, guardian ad litems. EVERYONE is welcome!

What you will learn:
An overview of Historical Trauma
Ways to identify trauma in families
Identify ways to assist people experiencing trauma
How to develop trust with families experiencing trauma

You are invited to attend any of these FREE upcoming trainings. All trainings will be from 1-4 p.m. and for your convenience will be held in several areas. Please select one from the following dates/locations:

- 8/18/17 OMAHA area Metropolitan Community College, Room 110, Fort Omaha Campus, Bldg 10, Room 110, Campus entrance at 30th & Fort streets, 5300 N. 30th Street, Omaha, NE
- 8/25/17 LINCOLN area Lincoln Firefighter’s Reception Hall, 241 Victory Lane, Lincoln, NE
- 9/8/17 SIOUX CITY area Northeast Community College, 1001 College Way, South Sioux City, NE
- 9/15/17 NIOBRARA area Ponca Tribe of NE Headquarters, 2523 Woodbine Street, NIOBRARA, NE
- 9/22/17 NORFOLK area Ponca Tribe of NE, Transit Facility, 1800 Syracuse Avenue, Norfolk, NE